Raheen Remembrance Tree for month of November: You may like to put to put the names of your deceased relatives and friends on the cards provided and place them on the tree. They will be remembered in prayers during this month.

Holy Souls (Purgatorial) Envelopes are available near the doors of each church. There are inserts with them to give you an opportunity to list the names of the 'Holy Souls' you wish to benefit from the Purgatorial Masses. Please put the list of names in the envelopes provided, together with your Holy Souls Offering. Each priest undertakes to say 15 purgatorial Masses in the year for those whose names are on the Purgatorial lists.

Candlelight Mass for the Deceased:

Crecora: 8th November at 7.30 p.m. Raheen: 15th. November 7.30 p.m.

Mass will be celebrated both nights to remember our beloved deceased. At the Masses, the names of those whose funeral Masses were celebrated in our church in the last 12 months will be called out. A candle will be on the altar and a family member is invited to come forward to light their loved one's candle. After those candles are lit, there will be an opportunity for anyone else present who had a bereavement during the year, but whose funeral was not celebrated in our church, to bring forward a small candle which will be supplied at the back of the church.

An Ecumenical Service will be held at the Catholic Church of Ss. Peter & Paul, Crecora on Thursday 16th November at 7.30 p.m. We are delighted to welcome members of the local church of Ireland communities to join with us at this service, where the Rector of the Adare & Kilmallock group of parishes, Rev. Liz Beasley, will preach the sermon. The service is being held to mark the 500th anniversary of the Reformation of Martin Luther. All are welcome from all parts of the parish of Mungret/Raheen/Crecora to come and join in prayer with our church of Ireland neighbours. The Crecora Parish Choir will sing at the service and refreshments will be served after at Crecora National school and all are welcome.

On December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, a consecration of Ireland to the Immaculate Heart of Mary will take place. This is a wonderful opportunity to join with hundreds of thousands of other Irish people in entrusting ourselves and our country to Our Lady. Fr Michael Gaitley, a priest of the Marians of the Immaculate Conception (MIC), has published a bestselling book titled 33 Days to Morning Glory. The Book contains short daily readings based on the devotion of 4 exemplary Saints known as much as anything for their Marian devotion; St Louis Marie de Montfort, St Maximilian Kolbe, St Teresa of Calcutta, and St John Paul II. He has donated hundreds of thousands of these books which are being distributed in magazine form to parishes around Ireland. Using these booklets preparation for consecration to Jesus through Mary will begin around the country on November 5th with aim to consecrate oneself on December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, in this year, the 100th anniversary of the Fatima Apparitions. Whatever your path through life, allow yourself to walk the way with the one who understands its challenges best. See www.timeofmercy.ie
33 Days to Morning Glory Booklet available at the back of the church.

Reeling Back the Hurling Years 1973: You are invited to join us in Mungret/St.Paul G.A.A. Community Centre on Friday November 10th at 8 p.m. in what will be a special night of memories, banter and craic with special guests Richie Bennis, Bernie Hartigan, Eamonn Cregan, Liam O'Donoghue, John Ryan and Eamonn Grimes. Admission free.

Knitvity: Thanks to all who got involved in the Knitvity for Beaumont Hospital, if you could please have your knitting into us by the weekend of the 25th/26th November. You can drop them to the Sacristy or to the Parish Office.
